

ALL INDIA INSTITUTE OF MEDICAL SCIENCES, RAJKOT, GUJARAT
DEPARTMENT OF OPHTHALMOLOGY

Conjunctivitis

It is type of infectious disease affecting eyes usually due to viral & bacterial infections.

Symptoms

Yellowish or watery discharge

Redness ,itching,pain in eyes

Swelling of eyelids, sticky eyelids

Grittiness & irritation in eyes

Fever, bodyache

Treatment of conjunctivitis

Use protective goggle/dark goggle

Don't rub your eyes

Use eye wipes to clean the eyes

Avoid self medication

Don't use contact lenses

Consult ophthalmologist before using any eye drops.

If blurring of vision consult ophthalmologist

Postop patients must consult ophthalmologist

Prevention of conjunctivitis

Use protective glasses

Avoid touching eyes

Wash your hands frequently with soap or sanitizers

Wash your eyes with clean water

Keep environment clean,Avoid crowded places,skip swimming Don't share towels, bedsheets etc of infected persons